schiedam, Hohand, expressly for medicinal use.

It is now some twenty years since the proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over the thousand letters from physicians, indoesing it as the purest adopt they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from bariety of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, it flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper-berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a maint of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often daugerous effect produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water a visitation to which inveloperation of the west its special process, and all unasclimated persons in the West, the South, and Southwest are peculiarly liable—the Schrizchan Azonarie could be sent-weekly line between Memphis and source to be undersaid.
